Mark P. Santagata of Stamford was recently elected chairman of the board of directors at Visiting Nurse and Hospice Care of Southwestern Connecticut. Santagata, a partner with the law firm of Cacace, Tusch & Santagata in Stamford, replaces Beverly J. Hunt, who was chairman for nine years. Santagata was chairman of the board of directors at VNHC from 1995 to 1998 and in 1989 advised VNHC staff through the construction of the Richard L. Rosenthal Hospice Residence, a 12-bed facility at Stamford Hospital. VNHC provides home health and hospice services. Call 276-3000 or visit www.vnhcsw.org.
